About the conference

The 3rd IFAC Conference on Advances in Proportional-Integral-Derivative Control (PID 2018) will be held Wednesday through Friday, May 9-11, at the Het Pand Convent and Meeting Centre in the heart of Ghent, Belgium – unanimously declared as the most pleasant city of Belgium.

The technical program will comprise several types of presentations in regular and invited sessions, tutorial sessions, and special sessions along with workshops and exhibits. An important goal of the conference is to bring forward the role of PID control in the new Industry 4.0 context and listen to the challenges from both industry and academia.

Topics: emphasis will be put on current challenges and new directions in PID control in the context of Industry 4.0.

All sponsors have the opportunity to actively participate in the industry panel. Study cases from industry and challenges thereof are welcome.

Why you must participate

Participating in this international event is very relevant, because:

- You will have the advantage of getting in touch with the newest control developments;
- You will have the opportunity to discover the latest trends within the Industry 4.0-framework;
- Your company will be visible to a worldwide community of experts;

On the next page, we give you some formulas to present your company to the world. We provided some standard packages that could fit your expectations, but do not hesitate to come up with your own proposals. We will happily discuss them with you, our partner.

Sponsor Opportunities

Copyright Conditions

“All publication material submitted for presentation at an IFAC-sponsored meeting (Congress, Symposium, Conference, Workshop) must be original and hence cannot be already published, nor can it be under review elsewhere. The authors take responsibility for the material that has been submitted. IFAC-sponsored conferences will abide by the highest standard of ethical behavior in the review process as explained on the Elsevier webpage (<http://www.elsevier.com/journal-authors/author-rights-and-responsibilities>), and the authors will abide by the IFAC publication ethics guidelines (<http://www.ifac-control.org/events/organizers-guide/PublicationEthicsGuidelines.pdf/view>).

Accepted papers that have been presented at an IFAC meeting will be published in the proceedings of the event using the open-access IFAC-PapersOnLine series hosted on ScienceDirect (<http://www.sciencedirect.com>). To this end, the author(s) must confer the copyright to IFAC when they submit the final version of the paper through the paper submission process. The author(s) retain the right to use a copy of the paper for personal use, internal institutional use at the author(s)' institution, or scholarly posting at an open web site operated by the author(s) or their institution, limited to noncommercial use. Any other use of the paper requires approval by IFAC.”
